

GFWC DUNWOODY WOMAN'S CLUB

Member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) and GFWC-Georgia

The club is a service organization that provides financial and hands-on contributions that have helped shape Dunwoody and the surrounding community through programs in five program areas:

- Arts and Culture
- Civic Engagement and Outreach
- Education and Libraries
- Environment
- Health and Wellness

We welcome prospective members at any time.

The club meets on the third Thursday of each month, September through May, at the N. Shallowford Annex at 4470 North Shallowford Rd., Dunwoody. Most meetings are at 10 a.m. with a social time from 9:30 to 10:00 a.m. We also have an Evening Division of DWC to accommodate women who cannot attend morning meetings. Let us know if you are interested. Members organize and participate in our major fundraiser, the annual Dunwoody Home Tour, held in early October of each year. Annual dues are $70.

If you would like to attend a meeting as our guest, please email Dottie D'Angelo, Membership Chairman, at dottieatlanta@gmail.com

A 501(c) (3) charitable organization serving the community since 1971

DWC members have been the driving force behind the creation of numerous community organizations including:

- STAGE DOOR THEATRE, a prominent member of the Atlanta theater community, giving performances and classes for children and adults.
- SPRUILL CENTER FOR THE ARTS, the preeminent arts teaching facility in the Southeast, instructing more than 5,000 students yearly.
- DUNWOODY NATURE CENTER, preserving pristine, historic acreage in the heart of Dunwoody as a teaching and recreational center.
- DUNWOODY CULTURAL ARTS CENTER, home of the public library, Stage Door Theatre and the Spruill Center for the Arts, through adaptive re-use of the former Dunwoody Elementary School.
